TO: THE HONORABLE DAVID R. JONES UNITED STATES CHIEF BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Janet S. Northrup, the chapter 7 trustee (the “Trustee”) for the above-referenced jointly administered bankruptcy cases hereby files the Trustee’s Motion to Compromise Controversy with DOCO Industrial Insulators, Inc. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019 (the “Motion”). In support of the Motion, the Trustee would respectfully submit as follows:

¹ The Debtors in these jointly administered chapter 7 cases are Bennu Oil & Gas, LLC (Case No. 16-35930), Bennu Blocker, Inc. (Case No. 16-35931), and Bennu Holdings, LLC (Case No. 16-35932).

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Trustee seeks approval of a comprehensive compromise reached with DOCO Industrial Insulators, Inc. (“DOCO”). Under the proposed compromise, the Trustee will receive payment in the amount of $115,000.00 in exchange for the release of all claims and causes of action against DOCO held by the bankruptcy estate of Bennu Oil & Gas, LLC (the “Estate”), including claims related to the alleged pre-petition preferential transfers to DOCO from Bennu Oil & Gas, LLC in the amount of $143,750.00. A detailed description of the proposed compromise is set forth below. While the parties have agreed to the proposed compromise, the factual recitations set forth herein are solely those of the Trustee and are not necessarily agreed to by DOCO.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

III. CORE PROCEEDING

3. This is a core proceeding under 28 USC § 157(b)(2)(A) and (O). Since this is a core proceeding, the Bankruptcy Court has constitutional authority to enter final orders regarding the Motion. Further, to the extent that the Court determines that it does not have authority to enter a final judgment on a portion of or the entire Motion, the Trustee requests that the Court issue a report and recommendation for a judgment to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division.

IV. BACKGROUND

4. On November 30, 2016 (the “Petition Date”), Bennu Oil & Gas, LLC (“Bennu” or the “Debtor”) and each of the affiliated debtors (collectively and together with Bennu, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions for relief pursuant to chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby initiating the above-styled and subsequently jointly administered bankruptcy cases (the “Cases”).

5. Also on November 30, 2016, the Trustee was appointed to serve as the chapter 7 trustee in the Cases.

6. On January 26, 2017, the Trustee conducted the Debtors’ statutory 341 creditors meeting.

7. On February 8, 2017, Trustee filed the Trustee’s Motion for Order Directing Joint Administration of Cases, thereby requesting that the Cases be consolidated for administration purposes only (the “Joint Administration Motion”). [Case No. 16-35930, Docket No. 53]. On March 30, 2017, an order granting the Joint Administration Motion was entered thereby establishing that the Cases would thereafter be administered under Case No. 16-35930. [Case No. 16-35930, Docket No. 87].

8. Subsequent to her appointment, the Trustee began an investigation of the Debtors’ affairs, including, but not limited to, potentially avoidable preferential transfers. Among the potential preferential transfers identified by the Trustee were three (3) payments made from Bennu to DOCO in the month of September 2016, which totaled $143,750.00 (the “Transfers”). As a result of her investigation, it was determined that the Transfers are avoidable and recoverable pursuant to sections 547 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. Thereafter, the Trustee’s counsel sent a demand letter to DOCO requesting that DOCO return $143,750.00 to the Trustee on account of the Transfers. Having received no response from DOCO, the Trustee filed Adversary No. 18-3359 on November 27, 2018. DOCO did not file a responsive pleading. On August 20, 2019, the Trustee filed a motion for default judgment [Adv. Docket No. 9]. The Court entered the default judgment on December 11, 2019 [Adv. Docket No. 11].

10. When the Trustee began post-judgment collection efforts, DOCO responded and the parties engaged in discussions as to how best to resolve the default judgment. After negotiation and the exchange of various offers and subject to this Court's approval, the parties have reached a comprehensive agreement wherein DOCO wired $115,000.00 to the Trustee for full satisfaction of the judgment, which is 80% of the default judgment.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

11. The parties, after having engaged in settlement discussions, have agreed to a comprehensive settlement agreement (the "Settlement") of which they now seek Bankruptcy Court approval. Subject to Bankruptcy Court approval pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the parties have agreed to enter into the Settlement thereby resolving all disputes between them related to the Transfers. The essential terms of the Settlement are as follows:

- i. DOCO shall make a payment in the amount of $115,000.00 to the Trustee (the "Settlement Payment") which the Trustee currently holds in a segregated account pending Court approval of this compromise;
- ii. Upon the entry of an order approving the Settlement, any and all claims of any kind or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, pre- or post-petition, suspected, or unsuspected, fixed or contingent held by DOCO, its past, present, or future agents, administrators, trustees, predecessors, successors, or assigns against the Trustee and/or the Estate, which are related to the Transfers, the Cases, or otherwise shall be released and forever discharged; provided. Moreover, DOCO shall waive the right to file any claim related to the Settlement Payment pursuant to section 502(h) of the Bankruptcy Code; and
- iii. Upon the Trustee's receipt of the Settlement Payment in good funds, and the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Settlement, any and all claims of any kind or nature whatsoever, known or unknown, pre- or post-petition, suspected, or unsuspected, fixed or contingent held by the Trustee and/or the Estate against DOCO, its past, present, or future agents, administrators, trustees, predecessors, successors, or assigns which are related to the Transfers, the Cases, or otherwise shall be released and forever discharged.

VI. MERITS OF THE SETTLEMENT

12. The merits of a proposed compromise should be judged under the criteria set forth in Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414 (1968). TMT Trailer requires that a compromise must be “fair and equitable.” TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424; In re AWECO, Inc., 725 F.2d 293, 298 (5th Cir.), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 880 (1984). The term “fair and equitable” means that senior interests are entitled to priority over junior interests. TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 441; AWECO, 725 F.2d at 298.

13. In determining whether a proposed compromise is fair and equitable, a court should consider the following factors:

- i. the probabilities of ultimate success should the claim be litigated;
- ii. the complexity, expense, and likely duration of litigating the claim;
- iii. the difficulties of collecting a judgment rendered from such litigation; and
- iv. all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the compromise.

TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424. The Trustee believes that the proposed settlement satisfies the requirements established by the U.S. Supreme Court in TMT Trailer.

14. Although the Trustee bears the burden of establishing that the proposed compromise is in the best interest of the Estate, compromises are a normal part of the bankruptcy process and oftentimes a desirable and wise method of bringing to a close proceedings that are otherwise lengthy, complicated, and costly. As such, the Trustee’s burden is not high. In re Shankman, No. 08-36327, 2010 WL 743297, at *3 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Mar. 2, 2010). The decision to approve a compromise lies within the Court’s discretion, and the Court “need not conduct a mini-trial to determine the probable outcome of any claims waived in the settlement.” Id. (quoting In re Cajun Elec. Power Co-Op, Inc., 119 F.3d 349, 355 (5th Cir. 1997)). The Trustee “need only show that . . . [her] decision falls within the ‘range of reasonable litigation alternatives.’” Id. (internal citations omitted).

15. The proposed settlement is fair, equitable, and in the best interest of the Estate and its creditors. Additionally, the proposed settlement is the product of arms-length bargaining and not of fraud or collusion. Accordingly, the Trustee believes that the proposed settlement satisfies the requirements established by the U.S. Supreme Court in TMT Trailer.

VII. ANALYSIS OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

A. PROBABILITIES OF ULTIMATE SUCCESS

16. The Trustee has undertaken an investigation of the facts and circumstances surrounding the default judgment, the various defenses available to DOCO, and the relevant case law. In this instance, the Trustee has a default judgment against DOCO. DOCO may have defenses to collection of the judgment. More importantly, DOCO has offered to satisfy 80% of the default judgment without further collection efforts by the Trustee in the State of Louisiana where DOCO does business.

17. After considering all of the positives and negatives of the Trustee’s position, the Trustee has concluded that the proposed Settlement is a good result for the Estate. Through the proposed Settlement and without incurring the legal fees and expenses associated with collection efforts against DOCO in Louisiana, the Trustee will be paid $115,000.00 for the benefit of the Estate. Thus, in the Trustee’s business judgment, the collection risk associated with the default judgment is high. Accordingly, this factor supports the proposed compromise.

B. COMPLEXITY, EXPENSE, AND LIKELY DURATION

18. The issues involved with collection of the default judgment would not be extremely complicated. However, collection would occur in the State of Louisiana and require domestication of the default judgment. The duration of the collection would likely be no more than four (4) to six (6) months, with legal costs and expenses of approximately $10,000.00 to $15,000.00. This factor supports approval of the proposed compromise.

C. DIFFICULTIES OF COLLECTION

19. The Trustee does not have serious concerns about the collectability of a judgment against DOCO. The Trustee would assert this factor is neutral as to approval of the proposed compromise.

D. OTHER FACTORS

20. The Trustee believes that the proposed Settlement is equitable and in the best interest of the Estate. By settling this matter, neither of the parties will expend any money regarding collection of the default judgment and the Estate will realize 80% of the default judgment without further legal fees or costs, which will minimize administrative expenses and allow for greater distributions to the creditors of the Estate.

VIII. CONCLUSION

21. For the reasons set forth herein, the Trustee respectfully requests the entry of an order approving the compromise and granting the Trustee such other relief, both at law and in equity, to which she may justly be entitled.

DATED: January 15, 2020.
